Law Students seeking work experience
Brisbane Office

Role

DSS Law is a growing, CBD located firm with an exciting opportunity for law students in their penultimate or final year of their degree to gain some valuable work experience.

We are looking for talented candidates who are keen to apply their knowledge and gain first-hand experience of what it is like to work in a busy commercial law firm. You will have the opportunity to work with a team of experienced lawyers on challenging and varied transactions and matters in a friendly and flexible work environment.

About DSS Law

With offices in Brisbane and Melbourne, DSS Law has built a strong reputation as a trusted advisor in the areas of litigation, property, commercial, corporate, insolvency, and wills & estates.

Our highly skilled and experienced lawyers are known for their reliable and responsive service and commitment to building long-term, trusted relationships with their clients.

We believe our lawyers' focus on delivering excellent client service and providing customised legal solutions is what sets us apart from other firms.

DSS Law prides itself on hiring competent individuals and we reward self-starters who continually strive for personal and professional growth.

Apply

We value our clerkship positions and look to our law clerk intake for future graduate positions.
