

Commercial Litigation Lawyer

- Excellent exposure to high quality work
- CBD Location
- Role offering autonomy and variety

Role

With a busy and successful Commercial Litigation practice, DSS Law is always looking for high-performing, experienced commercial litigation lawyers to welcome to the team.

We are seeking lawyers with at least 2 – 4 years PAE in a previous commercial litigation role.

Other skills and experience the role requires include:

- Solid negotiation and dispute resolution skills
- Well developed interpersonal, communication and consultation skills
- The ability to build and maintain positive working relationships with clients
- A demonstrated ability to work effectively as a member of a friendly, professional team and to achieve client and litigation time frames
- Adept at doing your own court appearances
- The ability to be self managed and be self motivated
- Professional demeanour
- Ability to provide mentorship to earlier career lawyers
- Excellent attention to detail
- A demonstrated ability to meet and aim to exceed set targets for billable hours.

You will have the opportunity to work on complex transactions, will be responsible for running your own file load with assistance from senior lawyers (where necessary), and will be given genuine autonomy and responsibility.

If you enjoy a challenge and gaining experience across different commercial matters, we would love to hear from you!

About DSS Law

With offices in Brisbane and Melbourne, DSS Law has built a strong reputation as a trusted advisor in the areas of litigation, property, commercial, corporate, insolvency, and wills & estates. Our highly skilled and experienced lawyers are known for their reliable and responsive service and commitment to building long-term, trusted relationships with their clients.

The firm has been operating since 2013 and in that time has grown significantly with a strong portfolio of litigation and property clients, offering a range of quality work and experience. We adopt a busy yet flexible and friendly work environment. We also have a strong focus on marketing and business development, providing staff with an opportunity to grow their own personal networks.

Apply

Interested applicants to email applications to Renee Pappagallo at r.pappagallo@dsslaw.com.au.