

Property Lawyer

- Excellent exposure to high quality work
- CBD Location
- Role offering autonomy and variety

Role

DSS Law enjoys a busy and growing Property Law practice and we are always on the look out for high-performing, experienced property lawyers to welcome in to the firm.

We are seeking lawyers with at least 2 – 4 years PAE in a previous property role.

Other skills and experience the role requires include:

- A broad range of property and general commercial experience
- Solid drafting skills
- Strong legal and client management skills
- Knowledge of the Queensland Titles Office documents and requirements
- The ability to operate files autonomously
- Professional demeanour
- Ability to provide mentorship to earlier career lawyers
- The ability to build and maintain positive working relationships with clients
- Excellent attention to detail
- A demonstrated ability to meet and aim to exceed set targets for billable hours.

You will have the opportunity to be involved in a range of high-quality property and commercial matters including complex property transactions and developments, establishing community titles schemes, business sales and acquisitions, leasing, business structuring and commercial contracts and agreements. For the right person, the role may also involve mentoring and supervision of junior lawyers and paralegals within the Property team.

If you enjoy a challenge, experience across different commercial matters and genuine responsibility, we would love to hear from you!

About DSS Law

With offices in Brisbane and Melbourne, DSS Law has built a strong reputation as a trusted advisor in the areas of litigation, property, commercial, corporate, insolvency, and wills & estates. Our highly skilled and experienced lawyers are known for their reliable and responsive service and commitment to building long-term, trusted relationships with their clients.

The firm has been operating since 2013 and in that time has grown significantly with a strong portfolio of litigation and property clients, offering a range of quality work and experience. We adopt a busy yet flexible and friendly work environment. We also have a strong focus on marketing and business development, providing staff with an opportunity to grow their own personal networks.
